Grapes

Green Grapes - Growers north of Bakersfield seem to have taken the brunt of the storm and the damage to many northern ranches is significant. Autumn Kings and Autumn Crisp were impacted the most. Sweet Globe/Autumn Kings/Great Greens are the main green varieties available in the market. Both varieties have been consistently delivering an excellent eating experience and great size, but the issue remains that the coolers are filled with fruit from a wide range of pack-dates.

Black Grapes - California Summer Royals are finishing up moving into Autumn Royals quality looks good.

Red Grapes - Scarlett Royals, Krissy, and Allison are the main varieties available with Sweet Celebration harvests now getting underway. Shippers are still pushing out aggressive spot pricing to keep red seedless moving. Green seedless continues to outpace red. Next week will feature Allisons, Jack Salutes and Scarlet Reds

Strawberries

Poor weather has forced many California growers to cancel field production. Expect strong demand and elevated markets through next week. Quality is average. Early signs of decay and bruising have been reported. Mexican product with limited supplies with unfavorable weather condition. Florida expected to start by mid-end November with light volume.

Blueberries

Prices are starting to decrease. Supplies are increasing in Mexico, Peru and Argentina. Quality is very good; berries are plump and sweet.
